WHY HUNS HOPE TO GET TRUCE AS TALK GOES ON

Desperate Situation Behind Enemy Lines Could Be Saved

NEW ARMS AND NEW MEN SOON

Crippling Blows by Allies Could Be Averted During Armistice

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, Oct. 7, 8:30 p. m.—(By The Associated Press.)—The soldiers of the Allied armies want peace, but no peace except a completely victorious one.

This was the opinion expressed by officers and men alike to the Associated Press correspondent today. If Germany is now willing to admit her utter defeat, then, say these men who have been fighting the good fight for the liberty of the world, so much the better, but they declare the granting of an armistice at this time, unless the enemy is absolutely sincere, might prove extremely dangerous.

"Victory first, then peace." This is the manner in which French civilians who have returned to their shattered homes in northern France expressed themselves when the subject of an armistice is discussed.

The same idea runs through the minds of all the Allied armies, where men have seen their comrades die, and where the feeling is that of the invader in the fall unless victory is absolute.

Would Build New Defense

The suspension of hostilities even for a few days, would enable the Germans to continue their preparation of lines to which they might retire for the winter. At the moment the Hindenburg system has been smashed, and the German military leaders probably believe that they may soon be fighting back over country in which at present they have no lines, no dugouts, no protection from the advancing Allied troops.

The Allied armies are in a strong and advanced position, and the general feeling here is that the defeat of Germany may come sooner than expected elsewhere than at the front.

By retreating unhindered, the Germans could materially shorten their lines and save men thereby. Thus they could check their retreat until the new 1920 class of about 500,000 young men could be incorporated in the units in the battle zone.

In addition, a vigorous "combing out" is in progress in Germany, which will undoubtedly result in the capture of machine guns could be shipped into the field to replace some of the immense number the Allies have captured.

Would Replace Munitions

A few days suspension of hostilities would permit munitions of all sorts, including shells, of which there is now a great scarcity behind the German lines, to reach the front.

Right now, army officers declare the Allies are in a position to continue smashing the enemy and an armistice might enable the enemy to escape for a time the defeat which now stares him in the face.

As for Belgium, the German military leaders themselves apparently realized some time ago that they could not hope to hold on there, for German general headquarters was moved from Spa to well inside Germany's own borders. The Germans have not troops enough to hold it.

A glance at the German battle map is enlightening in this respect. Stratched along the front from the sea to Switzerland, as reported by this map, are little numbers designating the divisions placed at sections of the respective enemy units occupying the various battle lines. Except at two places along the front, including Flanders, the numbers are comparatively thin and placed far apart. But in the St. Quentin and Cambrai districts the numbers are so thickly placed as to make it difficult to get them all in.

Opposite the French and Americans on the Champagne front, a similar situation exists. The Germans dare not take a single man away from these places and as a matter of fact they are putting in every man they can lay hands on.

Must Be Held by Man-Power

On the British front, the Hindenburg line exists no more. It is no secret that the British will continue their powerful thrusts along where the enemy's strong line of defense has been broken. The Germans know this, but they do not know when and how and with what forces the attack will be launched. And indications are plentiful that the British are in a position to launch it when they are fit.

An armistice would save the situation for Germany. It is believed that the German armies so far have not the slightest knowledge of events, and it is with considerable interest that the British armies are watching for the effect, among the Germans, when they find out what has been done.

In the meantime the Germans continue their destruction on a wide spread scale. The damage they have

EMPHATIC REFUSAL BEING DRAWN UP BY ALLIED CHIEFS

Wilson Receives Maximilian's Proposal and Sends It at Once to London, Paris and Rome

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—President Wilson is conferring with the premier of the Entente nations over the form of answer to be made to Germany's latest peace proposals. The indications are that it will not be despatched for a day or two.

While there may be some question as to the form of the reply, there is no question whatever as to its nature. It may not use the short and forceful term, "unconditional surrender," which would reflect the sentiment of the nation, but it is sure to convey to the German government very clearly the fact that nothing less than the terms already laid down can be accepted, and that those terms cannot be made merely "the basis for negotiations" as to an armistice. Such a step would be looked upon as suicidal and not to be thought of.

Forwarded from Washington

By this time, Prince Maximilian's note and that of Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, in official form undoubtedly are in the foreign offices in London, Paris and Rome, forwarded by President Wilson as requested by the Central Powers.

The exchanges now going on have a two-fold purpose.

Obviously the American government would not proceed to speak for the other belligerents on a matter of such importance without consultation among them, and it is purposed to avoid the mistake of making a premature proposal, which could be used by the Central Powers before their own people, to bolster up the argument that they are waging a "defensive" war, and that the objects of the co-belligerents "are to destroy" them.

Lacking official announcements of the President, he has done it is highly probable that he had taken one of these two courses:

Either he has asked Premiers Lloyd-George, Clemenceau and Orlando to advise him of their replies, or, more likely still, the President already has formulated a reply and asked the premier for their acquiescence.

Senate Opposes Bargaining

The temper of debate in the Senate today and the general tone of public opinion in the United States as expressed in the newspaper comment are a very fair index of the government's views. The consensus of opinion in the Senate debate was that the offer should be rejected, the offer should be rejected, the offer should be rejected.

It is very clear that the reply will be not only an answer to Germany and her allies, but a statement for the historical record of the world.

It is a statement that a rejection of a peace offer must be a convincing one and one which will justify the prolonging of the war to the ends sought. It is realized that it must be convincing to the people of Great Britain, France, Italy and the United States, so that they may not be misled by the insidious danger of throwing away the hard-won victory so near their grasp, and at the same time leave no opportunity for the militarist leaders of the Central Powers to lure their people on to more bloodshed and sacrifice.

May Address Congress

There is a suggestion that to carry out this purpose, President Wilson, after despatching the reply, may address Congress and explain the reasons which cause the Allies to reject the proposal. There is no official indication that the President plans such a course, but it is being discussed among many possibilities.

Col. E. M. House, the President's constant adviser and personal representative on many confidential errands, arrived at the White House tonight. His coming followed a busy day for the President, in which all other business was put aside, recreation was abandoned and except for an hour or two given over to entertaining Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the British admiralty, at luncheon, Wilson spent the day in his study. It was said he was writing.

The official communication from Germany was delivered to the White House this morning by the charge of the Swiss legation and the note from Austria was taken to the state department and handed to Secretary Lansing by Mr. Ekengren, the minister from Sweden.

The President already had the unofficial text as transmitted by the Associated Press before him and the official copies added little or nothing to his information.

Must Be Fully Explained

In explaining the necessity for carefully considered action at this time, officials point out that the conditions arising from the presentation of separate formal communications from the two great central empires are quite different from those under which Count Burian's draft proposal to hold secret and "non-binding" conferences was commonly dealt with. Now the proposition is for formal and open discussions in a manner to bind the principles with hostilities suspended in the meantime.

Therefore the fact is recognized that

EXCITED CROWDS EAGER FOR NEWS OF PEACE MOVES

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 7.—By The Associated Press.—Excited crowds in the streets of Berlin yesterday tore special editions of the newspapers containing the speech of Prince Maximilian, the new chancellor, from the hands of the news-dealers.

Everywhere shouts of "peace has come!" "Peace at last!" were heard.

Theodore Wolff, in Sunday's Berlin Tageblatt, thus describes the scenes in the German capital, and adds:

"One would like to share this hope and yet for the present, at least, one has to be dubious and skeptical."

This note of doubt pervades a large section of the German press, apart from the pan-German irreconcilables.

Herr Wolff continues:

"Surely, if an honest world could today exercise the war, the President Wilson ought to be won by the pure love of humanity which fills Prince Maximilian's breast. President Wilson ought to say to himself that peace to annihilation would only exist in Chauvinism in the Germanic peoples, and that therefore, continuation of the war would not serve his ideals. All this the President of the United States ought to do, but whether he will do it is uncertain. Therefore, one must not indulge in premature hopes."

Herr Wolff declares that the powers of yesterday in Germany are openly hostile to Prince Max's demarche, while secretly rejoicing that there is not the responsibility in this most difficult hour. But, he says, their responsibility will nevertheless not be forgotten by the nation.

the people of America and of the Entente countries who are really desirous of peace on fair terms are entitled to an explanation of the reasons which move the government in rejecting a proposal which on its face might appear to be a really and sincerely.

They must understand, these officials say, the impossibility of compliance with these requests without sacrifice of all the safeguards which are regarded as essential to the conclusion of the kind of peace which America and her allies are determined to have and for which many lives already have been given, and that shall rid the world of German military domination and insure it against another and even more savage war, as soon as the Germanic war lords can repair their shattered armies and rehabilitate their shattered and broken financial and economic conditions.

It was emphasized that the idea must not go out that America does not desire peace, for the war is waged for the realization of certain high ideals of democracy and liberty and not for revenge or desire ruthlessly to destroy any nation.

Another consideration which has influenced the officials who are shaping the course of these negotiations, is the course of events upon the German people themselves of a court, sharp and unreasoned refusal of their appeal. They have been told by their rulers that the purpose of their enemies was the destruction of Germany and Austria.

JUST "YES, SIR," ALL FROM HUNS

Declares Roosevelt in Talking of Proposed Peace Conference

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 7.—In a denunciation of Germany's latest peace offensive, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, speaking at a Liberty loan mass meeting here tonight, declared that the Allies should be prosecuted with renewed vigor, "until Germany and her vassals should have been brought to their knees."

"The German government does not have to worry about peace terms," Colonel Roosevelt said. "America and the Allies will tell Germany what she has to do. All she will have to do is to say 'yes, sir.' The present peace drive makes it all the more incumbent upon us to put the war through as quickly as possible."

However, he said, to secure a lasting permanent peace after the war, hostilities must be continued "until Germany is knocked out." The speaker appealed to unstinted support of the Liberty loan campaign.

SENATORS CALL ONLY QUARTER OF LIBERTY LOAN FUND TAKEN

Declare Armistice Would Defeat Object for Which U. S. Made War

WILL REMAIN IN SESSION

Ready to Uphold Wilson's Hands in Any Event

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Immediate rejection of the German and Austrian proposal for an armistice and peace negotiations was demanded in the Senate today by leaders voicing the common sentiment of the membership.

There was no dissent from the view that an armistice would defeat all that America and the Allies have been fighting for, and every speaker, during two hours of a spirited session devoted entirely to discussion of the enemy's latest move, joined in declaring that only through military victory could the cause of the Allies and humanity be won. The suggestion of such a step was scornfully denounced as an insidious attack of a losing enemy.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee, Republican, Leader Lodge of Massachusetts, ranking minority leader of the committee, Senator Chandler of Washington, Member of North Dakota, Senator Nevada, Johnson and Smith of Arizona, Nelson of Minnesota, and Reed of Missouri, were among the speakers, representing both political parties. The discussion, which was made to vacant galleries, closed as a precaution against the Spanish influenza epidemic, may be renewed next Thursday, when the Senate reconvenes after a recess.

After Senator Hitchcock and others had declared an armistice impossible, Senator Hitchcock introduced a resolution proposing as the first requisite to any peace negotiations, absolute surrender by Germany, including dissolution of her army and places, for complete indemnifications. The resolution was referred to the foreign relations committee.

Absolutely Abhorrent

Although first pointing out that Germany's offer contemplates acceptance of President Wilson's fourteen peace terms, Senator Hitchcock declared that the request for an armistice is "absolutely abhorrent" to every member of the Senate. It is "unthinkable," he said, that the German and Austrian proposals will be accepted and he insisted that not only must Alexander Loupaine be restored to France, but that in any peace negotiations, an essential condition is that the situation must be "put behind the bars."

He pointed out the danger of the "peace offensive" which he predicted last night the enemy would make and said he did not believe President Wilson contemplates accepting any such proposal made by the enemy.

Senator Chandler in the discussion and other senators in private declared it was inadvisable for the Senate to adjourn in view of developments and that the foreign relations committee should keep in touch with the situation. It was suggested that in event of a recess, an agreement for prompt reconvening upon all of leaders, should be made.

NEW JAPANESE CABINET TO FEEL PUBLIC PULSE

TOKYO, Monday, Sept. 29. (By the Associated Press.)—Takashi Hara, the new premier, has informed the news papers that his cabinet will avoid secrecy and that he will frankly reveal his policies to the public. He requested the support of the newspapers.

Foreign Minister Uchida said today that, though there were numerous difficulties, he was determined to discharge his duties in such a way as to satisfy the nation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—October 26 was fixed today by President Wilson as the date on which male citizens of Hawaii, between 18 and 45, shall register for military service. Between October 15 and December 15 was set as the period for the new registration in Alaska, two months being allowed because of the distances to be traveled by registrants there and the difficulties of transportation.

M'ADOO ISSUES ANOTHER APPEAL

Hun Peace Proposal Must Not Be Allowed to Paralyze Nation

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The appeal to "lend the way they fight" received new expression in a cablegram from Marshall Foch, received today by the Liberty loan committee here, which reads:

"The fourth Liberty loan will be a magnificent success if you fellow citizens put into the subscriptions the same spirit that your soldiers put into the battle."

CINCINNATI, Oct. 7.—The executive council of the International Typographical Union which is meeting here with the board of governors of the Inter-Allied Printing Trades Council, announced tonight that as an answer to Germany's peace proposal, it had authorized an additional $30,000 subscription to the fourth Liberty loan.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Seven days of solicitation for the fourth Liberty loan have yielded $1,235,185.50, which to raise the remainder of the $6,000,000,000. Reports compiled tonight by the treasury, covering receipts up to last Saturday night, showed 22 per cent of the loan had been subscribed and backed up by 27 initial payments. "This did not take into consideration rather large aggregates gathered yesterday in many cities by house to house canvassers."

Apprehension that peace news from abroad might cause relaxation of effort by workers and subscribers, became more distinct in the capital today on receipt of reports from communities throughout the country that individual and business firms were inclined to postpone making their subscriptions until late in the campaign, meanwhile watching the progress of the Central Powers' peace offensive.

Must Not Relax

Secretary McAdoo issued a statement saying that "now is the time above all others not to relax but to intensify efforts." It was requested that this statement had been issued by President Wilson, who is represented as feeling deeply that the fourth loan should be generously subscribed both for the actual needs of the government and for the moral support which this would give the United States in the present situation.

Inroads of influenza epidemics on campaign plans were reported more serious today.

The St. Louis district, even though not reporting since last Saturday, still leads others in percentage achievements, according to treasury tabulations.

This Coast Is Fourth

Subscriptions and percentages of quotas by districts are as follows:

District	Subscriptions	Per Cent
St. Louis	$1,137,000	173
Minneapolis	$1,000,000	160
Boston	$1,000,000	159
San Francisco	$1,000,000	158
Dallas	$1,000,000	155
Richmond	$1,000,000	154
Chicago	$1,000,000	153
Philadelphia	$1,000,000	152
New York	$1,000,000	151
Cleveland	$1,000,000	150
Atlanta	$1,000,000	149
Kansas City	$1,000,000	148

Hawaii is leading all divisions of the San Francisco district with subscriptions of $1,350,000, 20 per cent of its quota. Second in the district was the 20th official bank's subscriptions, at Oregon, 45 per cent; Washington, 45; Idaho, 45; Utah, 45; Arizona, 45; Northern California, 45; Trinity county in northern California has a percentage of 200 and claims a record.

Regional railroad directors report that in the central western region 50 per cent of employees subscribed $25,000,000, an average of $25 a subscriber. In the southwestern region $10,392,000 was subscribed.

GENERAL DOYEN OF MARINE CORPS DIES OF GRIPPE

Doyen, who commanded the first regiment of the Marine corps to go to France with the American expeditionary forces, died at Quantico, Va., last night, of influenza. He had been suffering with military honors, but arrangements for the funeral have not yet been announced.

General Doyen remained in France nearly a year, being promoted to the rank of a brigadier and to the command of the First Marine brigade of the Second division. The strain of his duties brought on ill health, and he suffered a physical breakdown. He was transferred back to this country, where he was made commander of the training station at Quantico.

FRENCH FORCE WAY ACROSS AISNE TO NORTH OF RHEIMS

Take Berry-au-Bac; Fierce Struggle With Allied Gains North of Argonne

(By the Associated Press.)

The troops of the French General Berthelot have delivered a successful blow against the Germans northwest of Rheims, which adds materially to the menace that is hanging over the German front from the North Sea to the Swiss border. This was the capture of Berry-au-Bac, on the north side of the Aisne, about ten and a half miles northwest of Rheims, and only a scant five miles from the eastern end of the famous Chemin-Des-Dames ridge at Craonne. A further advance northward across the railroad not alone will put the great stronghold of Laon in a pocket, but also will outflank Neuchâtel, another enemy stronghold on the west.

The Turks also have suffered a serious blow in the loss to the French of Beirut, capital of the vilayet of the same name. The occupation of this seaport on the Mediterranean by a French naval division gives the Allies a base for the landing of men who can operate in all directions against the Turks over the roads radiating from it.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Although peace talk still is in the air, there is no peace for the German and Austro-Hungarian armies in the field.

While attempts are being made in "well informed circles" in Germany and Austria to show that the latest peace proposal of the Central Powers are honest expressions of a desire for a "just peace," Marshal Foch's armies are proceeding without pause in their task of clearing Belgium and France of the invader. And they are continuing to meet with great success. Likewise in Serbia and Albania, the Serbs and Albanians are fast reclaiming enemy occupied territory, while at last reports the British General Allenby in Palestine still was hard after the retreating Turks.

While further good gains have been made by the British east of Arras, where the operations have in view the capture of the highly important town of Douai, and other advances have been recorded between Cambrai and St. Quentin, chief interest for the present centers in the fighting in Champagne and between the Argonne forest and the Meuse, where the French and Americans are driving the enemy steadily northward, despite great resistance on points of high strategic value.

Counter Thrusts Ineffective

All along the front from Rheims to the Meuse, a distance of more than fifty miles, the enemy's position has met with serious reverses, and is falling back at some places in disorder, under the heavy pressure that is being imposed against him. Where the enemy is trying to resist, the French and Americans are meeting their counter thrusts with splendid stamina and gradually forcing them to give ground step by step.

East of the Argonne forest, between the great wooded mountains and the Meuse, the Americans have further advanced their line notwithstanding the fact that the enemy has thrown in large reinforcements to hinder the "blinding out" of the forest, and the forcing of a junction by way of the Aire valley, between the Americans and French troops on its western side. In the latest fighting, the Americans drove the Germans out of Châtel Cherey, northwest of Apremont, and obtained command of the heights west of the Aire. The latest German official communication reports that the Americans Monday began a new attack in this region.

From La Fere to Verdun

Taken together, the entire southern front of the German position seems to be in a rather serious situation from La Fere to the north of Verdun. Laon, the great stronghold of the Germans northeast of Soissons, is reported to be on fire, indicating the possibility of an early falling back of the Chemin-Des-Dames defenses are outflanked at this end; Rheims has been restored and the Germans pushed back more than ten miles north of it, while eastward General Foch's armies are brilliant in carrying out their part of the great converging movement that seemingly at no far distant date will force the enemy's material to reaching his line.

A further indication of the situation in the German army is the report that Field Marshal Hindenburg has resigned after a stormy interview with Emperor William, during which Von Hindenburg informed the emperor that his retreat on a large scale was necessary.

"NOT DUE TO ANY MILITARY LOSS"

Declare Austrians in New Explanation of Peace Moves

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 7.—An elucidation of the peace offer of the Central Powers is published by the Vienna newspapers. The article which is explained as emanating from "well informed circles" reads as follows:

"It is first to be emphasized that this step by Austria-Hungary, Turkey and Germany is not to be regarded as a decision taken suddenly under stress of military events. It continues rather in the history of our peace policy the last link in the chain of logical and continual evolution, regarded being paid at the same time to the latest international political developments in Germany."

"As is known, the point of departure of our peace policy was Baron Burian's note of September 1918, a step then taken as of a very vague character. The conditions were not described but only indicated in broad lines."

"In the course of the development, the conditions have become crystallized. During February, March and April expressions regarding a general and just peace without annexations or compensation came into currency."

"Subsequently the idea of establishing an international court of arbitration and a reduction of armaments was discussed and further, the principle of freedom of the seas was proclaimed and finally the principle was set forth that economic wars and economic oppression after the war must be prevented. Out of these guiding principles arose the present peace program, credited to Germany."

"All these points, it will be recalled, were accepted by Count Czernin (former Austrian foreign minister) in speeches and interviews as a suitable basis for peace negotiations and finally received the approval also of the German government."

MORMON WHEAT STORE FOR U. S.

Life Work of Woman,
Now 91 Years Old,
Help In War

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 7.—It was owing to the foresight and energy of a woman that the United States food administration was enabled to obtain recently 175,000 bushels of wheat from the Relief Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormons). This store of grain had been saved against possible famine and was made available to the government in a time of great need.

The woman who was chiefly instrumental in saving up the wheat is Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells, president of the church relief society. For 42 years she carried out the wishes of Brigham Young in the storing of the grain.

Young, then president of the Mormon church, taught her that some day there would be a famine and he urged her to advise saving grain. Through the medium of a paper known as the "Woman's Exponent," which Mrs. Wells edited for years, she preached the storing of grain by the women of the church relief societies. The original work began through the cleaning of the wheat fields and growing annually until in later years funds of the society were invested in wheat, which was sold when prices were high, the money being re-invested when the prices were low.

Mrs. Wells, who is now 91 years old, is a member of the Mormon church and has been a member of the church since she was 14. She is a native of England and has been a member of the church since she was 14. She is a native of England and has been a member of the church since she was 14. done to the coal mines in northern France. The last district, is of a most serious nature. From information at hand it would appear that the Germans have done their worst so thoroughly that it may be impossible to get the mines in operation for a long time.

More burning farm houses. Even the farm houses of the peasants in the area northeast of Lille have been set ablaze and the enemy seems determined to devastate completely the country and destroy everything that can be reached. Again long clouds of smoke and sparks are being blown across the horizon.

Garros Again Missing.
PARIS, Oct. 7.—Lieutenant Roland G. Garros, a French aviator, well known in the United States, who last February escaped from a German prison and rejoined his aerial squadron, has again been posted as missing after a flight over the battle front.

Lieutenant Garros went out on a reconnaissance trip over the German lines a few days ago and has not returned.

Roland Garros figured in many aerial competitions in the United States in the pioneer days of aviation. At one time he held the record for altitude by ascending to a distance of 10,000 feet. He appeared in meets in Memphis, New Orleans, Dallas, Richmond, Chattanooga, Port Worth, Mexico City, Havana and New York, and holds a number of speed prizes won in various cities in Europe. He was born at Cape Town, South Africa, of French parents, in 1888.

To Command at Lewis.
CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 7.—Major General Joseph T. Leitch arrived here this morning from Camp Upton, Cal., to assume command of the Thirtieth division. He was in Tacoma by Brigadier General Frank B. Watson and escorted to camp. General Watson has been acting camp and division commander. General Leitch was in the United States army since 1902. He was graduated from West Point in 1880 and at the beginning of the war was made a brigadier general.

The first large series of artillery practices was begun today in the sector about Roy. The artillery practice will continue for three days and many guards are stationed about the range to prevent civilians and soldiers running into danger.

Quarantines for influenza are practically useless, according to a bulletin issued here today. Warning, however, is given to people and to the soldiers here particularly to remain away from crowds in theaters and other places where people congregate.

No Use for Passes.

PARIS.—General Mangin's army was engaged in the most terrific battle of the war for three days and nights. He made against the desperate resistance of the Prussian Guards and Bavarian shock troops. In the vicinity of Coney-le-Chateau and on the edges of the Saint Gobain forest the battle raged. German counter attacks had been made, but the American army after three weeks of stubborn fighting had just been relieved and rested in comparative safety behind the Ailette river. Two hundred of the American soldiers proudly exhibited passes entitling them to ten days leave in Paris and otherwise to the rear.

At four in the morning the "alert" was sounded. A violent German counter attack had just been launched threatening the allied positions north of the Ailette. The division was to return to the firing line at once.

As they mustered out, heavy with sleep, the officers told the boys that those in possession of passes for the rear might remain behind. They could take advantage of the brief lull.

Not one man remained behind.

Rheims Delivered.

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, Oct. 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—The delivery of the city of Rheims to the allies was a final triumph. Fort Ebenroide and the heights which it stands fell into the hands of the French troops this morning and the heights eastward from the city, including the Telen Mont, Comel, and the Mont Blanc, were clear of the enemy.

The soldiers of General Berthelot's army are marching eastward and General Gaudin's men are pushing northward, and enticed by their successes of the past few days are pushing the enemy with the utmost vigor. General Berthelot's lines are at least accounts ran in a general advance. General Gaudin's army is now at Rheims to Cernay-Les Rheims. Unconfirmed reports are that the French infantry is at Rheims.

In Deep Salient.
General Gaudin's forces have advanced to a line a thousand yards north of the river Arnes, between St. Etienne and Bethenville, almost on the same line as the German positions. These salient at Montheil and Challerange. The French troops are now in a position to attack the German positions at Montheil and Challerange. The French troops are now in a position to attack the German positions at Montheil and Challerange.

The important advance of the past two days was greatly facilitated by the capture of a height at the Meuse farm by the French and Americans, after which the troops to the left drove the enemy from the villages of Vaudesincourt, Ste. Marie-A-Py, St. Souplet, and Doutrien. The French troops are now in a position to attack the German positions at Montheil and Challerange. To Prevent Drafting.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Negotiations are in progress between state department officials and Provost Marshal General Crowder and representatives here of the French government to prevent agents of the American Red Cross, T. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus and similar organizations which the American army in France from being taken into military service. Under strict construction of the draft treaties, men of military age so employed might be drafted into the French army unless they accepted immediate service with the American army.

man reaching so much unanimity in the conception of the Allies (Teutonic) thereby found expression.

Then followed the peace note of Pope Benedict whose proposals and fundamental ideas were accepted by us as forming an acceptable basis. Only President Wilson in his note of January 8, 1918, in his fourteen points made proposals and proclaimed principles which substantially accorded with the program of the Central Powers.

Count Czernin and Count von Hertling described President Wilson's proposals, apart from a reserve regarding certain points, as a suitable basis for peace. The Austro-Hungarian delegations and the German delegations have described their attitude toward these proposals in a similar manner. It should be noted also that it was always President Wilson who occupied himself with a concrete peace program while the Entente adhered to its intentions of conquest. Then came Baron Burian's last prospect for a preliminary discussion before the belligerent powers.

The proposal was rejected by President Wilson, not, however, with the intention of cutting off peace discussions, because in his speech of September 27 he again reverted to it and in an objective manner set forth the necessity of a just peace—a peace that would not be one-sided, but just to both sides, and thus fulfill the principle of high justice to all.

"At this moment of the proclamation of this principle of equal justice for all parties, it became clear that it was possible in this manner to come near to attaining peace, because the principle of limitation of any one-sided preference provides for the solution of a group of difficult questions.

"In the consideration of the further circumstances, owing to the international political change in Germany, certain difficulties were cleared out of the way, it became clear that a uniform decision of the new German government's entering office we are in position to undertake a step which reaches as far back as the beginning of 1917.

"This step was born of the events of the moment, but continually has won its way through in the course of a natural development.

"In the circumstances we expect our step will lead to rapprochement and discussion. With the same time expression this hope we do not know how the Entente and President Wilson will view this step. It is, however, politically justified on the ground upon which President Wilson represents sole power and is not politically bound to the Entente."

PENITENCE MUST BE SHOWN FIRST BY HUNS

Allied Comment Finds No Change in German View

Bulgarian Surrender Is Taken as Model for Kaiser to Follow

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Distrust of Germany's peace intentions is reflected in comments on the peace proposals by newspapers here. The Mail, "In Prince Maximilian's speech," says the Mail, "there is not a word of repentance for crimes Germany has committed."

"We did not allow Bulgaria to tell us what to do. We intend to act precisely in the same way with Germany and Austria."

"If the German people wish to know what guarantees President Wilson and the Allies require, they may be embodied in two words: 'Unconditional surrender.' The Germans must leave the territories they have occupied, restore the property they have stolen, pay for all the damage they have done and surrender for trial by the Allies the great criminals of the war."

The Mail says there are about 500 of these, beginning with the emperor. It also declares that Germany will in no circumstances be given back her colonies.

"This method of approaching peace is the method of a people trying to strike a bargain, and the peace that is coming is not going to be a bargain peace," says the Telegraph.

Kaiser Still the Boss.

The newspaper seems a marked change in Germany's attitude as to certain matters in dispute, but declares the proposals as a whole to be impossible.

The newspaper repudiates the idea of trying to reach an understanding as to indemnity for Belgium. It says:

"It is a requirement of simple justice that Germany must atone for the devastation and plundering of Belgium. There are no fundamental changes in the German administration. Only a few men have been shifted and the Kaiser and those who rule him, are still the rulers of Germany."

Admitting that the latest German peace move is the most important of any thus far made, the Chronicle says it is insufficient.

"No statesman who believes in the Wilsonian policy is trying to deal with anything less than the final and unequivocal elimination of the Potsdam warmakers," it continues.

"The criminals who launched the war must be so unambiguously beaten that never after will doubt be raised as to who won it, and who lost it."

Must Admit Wrong.

The Chancellor's promise that an effort will be made to reach an understanding regarding an indemnity to Belgium is not enough. It is inadequate that in Belgium's case no equivocation should remain. Germany must say outright: 'I did wrong and I undertake as far as possible to pay for it.' Prince Maximilian's standpoint still seems essentially different from what is vital to us. Germany had undergone neither change of outlook nor change of heart, which alone can permit world peace to be permanent."

"Perhaps the most welcome feature of Germany's hastily arranged move is that it can be only a measure of her military necessity," says the Times.

After reviewing the chancellor's speech, the Times declares it to be "ambiguous and disingenuous stuff" and adds: "Will Germany ever realize there is only one way for her, namely, by deeds and not words? It is far too late to talk of a basis for peace negotiations. The determination of the Allied peoples to insist on the defeat of the enemy who made war shall be complete and absolute. That task they have undertaken and it shall be performed to the very end, and there will be no peace until Germany has surrendered."

Reviewing the move made by the Central Powers, accompanied by the retirement of their troops, the probability that the enemy peoples will be brought to a clear understanding of right and liberty.

The resolution refers to President Wilson's speech of September 27 and in the name of the congress representing the people and the workers, asks the governments of the Allies frankly to declare their purposes. The previous action of the Socialists in endorsing President Wilson's fourteen peace points likewise is reviewed and the resolution associates itself more than ever in all acts of President Wilson which will have the result of giving satisfaction to the masses who struggle and who have the right more than all others of having the response (to the Central Powers) now open to any misunderstanding. It is by this policy that the Socialists party feels that it like President Wilson, is working to bring about a just and durable peace."

Marked by Insincerity.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—No armistice will be granted the Central Powers before the complete evacuation by them of Allied territory, with a cessation of the destruction and burning of Allied cities. This is the personal opinion of foreign diplomats of the highest rank here who have been questioned concerning the peace speech of the German imperial chancellor, Prince Max of Baden.

If the German proposals had been sincere, say these authorities, the German troops would have already been ordered to leave their wretched positions.

One of the most distinguished of the diplomats said the proposal for an immediate armistice was put forward with the hope that the negotiations would be protracted for months and perhaps even for years, in the hope that the offensive spirit of the Allies would meanwhile decline.

The apparent acceptance by Germany of the points of President Wilson's program is characterized as "vague." If she had really meant to accept them she would have made clear her intentions, in his view, by evacuating the territories she occupied and retiring behind her own frontiers.

In the event of an acceptance by the Allies of the negotiations while German armies wear their present positions the diplomatist pointed out, Germany would still have in her possession pledges in the shape of territory for use in negotiating better terms."

Abuses Bulgaria.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 7.—Count Tisza, the former premier of Hungary, speaking at the reform congress at Budapest is quoted by the Berlin Vossische Zeitung correspondent at the Hungarian capital as saying that autonomy, so far as possible, would be granted to the various nationalities living in Hungary; that Austrian territory occupied by Italy, and that parts of Galicia would be annexed by new Poland.

Count Tisza is reported by the correspondent to have said:

"Bulgaria's treachery and the situation on the western front led us to decide, together with Germany, to undertake the peace step. We have sent a note to President Wilson announcing our acceptance of his fourteen points. 'We will try so far as possible to grant autonomy to nationalities living in Hungary; Austria territory occupied by Italy; and that parts of Galicia shall fall to new Poland.'"

Count Tisza added that steps had been taken to guard against surprise on the Rumanian front.

Must Reach Germany.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Representative Fess of Ohio, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee, in a statement today said: "This is no time to parley on peace around a table at which sit representatives of the autonomy of Germany or her allies. Germany is a territorial, industrially and politically is yet unbroken; her soil is yet free from the tread of an enemy army. The day of exemption is rapidly passing. No peace talk should be considered until our enemies are a German soul. Germany's armies surrendered and the German people who have upheld the campaign of terrorism have been compelled to taste the fruits of their own policy. Otherwise the end of the war is but an adjournment to another."

Must Show Penitence.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Germany in her latest peace offer seems anxious to save her own skin, even at the expense of her allies, said George Noll Barnes, member of the war cabinet, in a speech at Derby last night. The latest offer showed no change of heart and no change in the German system. The peace proposal only indicated that the Germans realized the change in the military situation and the shifting of the balance of power, he declared.

"If anything could come of the overtures," he said, "we should be foolish to deny ourselves that chance. But it will do nothing to facilitate the path of peace if the Germans showed some evidence of work following their protestations of faith. By clearing out of France and Belgium they could save their own souls."

"No Talk"—Viviani.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—Rene Viviani, president of the council when the war broke out and head of the French mission to the United States, interviewed by information regarding the peace proposals of the Central Powers, said today:

"Germany has presented propositions to President Wilson, but are they really propositions for peace? The discourse of Chancellor Maximilian appears to be merely the program of the majority. It is not a question of discussing the fourteen propositions made by President Wilson, for discussion of them as a basis for an armistice would not be in accord with the military advantages which we possess through the splendid services of our troops."

"Whether the enemy accords autonomy to Alsace-Lorraine is no longer a question for us. We demand the return of the provinces to France, pure and simple, and without a trap for a referendum."

"Appeal to Democracy"

MADRID, Oct. 7.—(By The Associated Press.)—The Diario Universal, the organ of Count Romanones, minister of justice, says in the German peace proposal the best proof of the sincerity and efficacy of democratic principles. It says:

"Finding itself in a grave situation, the German government turns toward the left in the presence of danger. It does not appeal to force but seeks salvation in the abandonment of the aristocratic, militaristic organization which is Germany's principal characteristic."

Foreign Minister Dato's newspaper, the Epoca, says:

"It is not peace, because the Central Powers will not admit President Wilson's conditions without modification, but in any case we are in a move toward new interesting alike to belligerents and neutrals."

Not Confident

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 7.—Dispatches from Vienna show Austrian newspapers to be deeply impressed with the peace move made by the Central Powers and filled with hope for its success.

The Fremdenblatt has some doubts, saying "we must reckon with everything and must be armed for all events."

"Never before was it necessary to look forward to coming events with such determination," says the Neue Presse. "It is not military necessity which forces the monarchy to make such concessions."

Merely Evasive

PARIS, Oct. 7.—(Evas.)—The request for an armistice and the opening of peace parleys by the Central Powers is looked upon by the French press generally as an attempt to evade certain disaster. It is declared that Germany hopes to conclude a peace which will permit her to exploit the peace treaties of Brest Litovsk and Bucharest, and also to save the Hohenzollern dynasty.

An armistice, under the present conditions, the newspapers think, is impossible. The conditions proposed by the new German chancellor do not at all correspond with the conditions for peace laid down by President Wilson.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Comment of the French press on the Teutonic peace proposals is summarized in an official dispatch from France today as follows:

"The steps taken by Germany, Austria, Hungary and Turkey is a collection of concessions which are now given to the Allied victors. A month ago Berlin would not have consented to carry so far her peace maneuvers. But this step maintains the confused character that all German proposals have borne. This one evidently shows the inward thought that it might succeed in weakening the Allied peoples and in setting her enemies against each other. She will see that she is mistaken."

PARIS REJOICES IN SAFE WORLD

People Rest Easy While Waiting on Wilson's Reply

PARIS, Oct. 5.—All eyes in France today turned towards America—in Washington and Wilson.

"What will President Wilson's reply be?" People ask and wonder, now that they know the Central Empires, particularly Germany, are seeking the cessation of hostilities and peace through the President of the United States.

The feeling is general that the Central Empires, bent upon the greatest gamble of all times, have attempted to bring about by one stroke the termination of their being panned by trying to seek the good offices of President Wilson as intermediary.

Paris went to church today as never before since the opening of hostilities. In the dark days when the Germans occupied Chateau Thierry, when their bridgehead south of Paris was like a scorpion's tail at France's heart, Paris remained indoors.

But today Paris sauntered out early and the churches of all denominations were filled to overflowing.

Saint Germain church, which was damaged by the shell from the long range German gun on Good Friday, has been sufficiently repaired to permit its doors to be opened today, and worshippers flocked thither to the singing of the hymn of St. Germain, which was sung at Saint Germain on Good Friday. It was Te Deum and Hosanna, victory that rose to the heavens today.

As Paris emerged from the churches, it overflowed upon the cheerful boulevards or sought temporary shade in cafes bathed in sunshine and everywhere one heard no longer the familiar and hopeful cry of "we shall get them," but the satisfied and contented exclamation: "We have got them."

BULGARS GIVE UP ALL SEIZED LAND

But Regain All of Old Bulgaria in Return for Act of Demobilization

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 7.—(Bulgaria.)—A despatch received here from Sofia quotes the Bulgarian semi-official newspaper, Prosveta, as giving the following as the terms of the armistice entered into between Bulgaria and the Entente Allies:

"The evacuation of the territories occupied by Bulgaria in 1918 which belonged to Serbia or Greece."

Re-establishment of Bulgarian rule in the portion of former Bulgarian territory occupied by troops of the Entente, for instance, Simnitsa.

Demobilization of the Bulgarian army, except three divisions of infantry and four regiments of cavalry.

Consignment to the Allied army of the arms, munitions and war materials of the demobilized troops.

Capitulation by the Bulgarian units stationed westward of Uskub when the armistice is signed, the troops to remain guarded by the Entente until further orders.

Departure within a month of German and Austro-Hungarian troops, military agencies, diplomatic and consular representatives and persons of those nationalities.

The Turks were not mentioned in the armistice, according to the despatch.

TO PASS BUILDING PERMITS LOCALLY

Fresno county non-war construction committee announced yesterday that arrangements are being made by which permits will be granted to local builders for the erection of farm buildings not to exceed 1000 in cost, and for repairs to existing buildings not to exceed $200 in cost. This arrangement, the committee states, will save farmers and others at distant parts of the county from coming to Fresno for the permits. The permits, it is stated, will be issued through local dealers.

The non-war construction committee's office at 204 Cory building was kept busy yesterday by applicants for permits. Many of the visitors to the office were seeking information regarding the building regulations. Secretary Thomas E. Hickey stated that few of the dealers and builders have complained of the restrictions.

COUNTY INSURANCE RENEWED BY BOARD

The board of supervisors yesterday renewed the three-year policies of fire and industrial accident insurance. The insurance for the employers' liability cost $5,711.83 in premiums. Fire insurance for the fair grounds cost $2,000.

The board also allowed $500 for a postage account for several months. A warrant for $550 was issued to the auditor for ballot paper.

A map of the Central Addition to Riverside was accepted. The County Welfare department was authorized to purchase a motor car.

Inaction by some officers in leaving warrants drawn for weeks with the auditor was criticized.

It was reported probable that the superior court would take up the recorder's case of Judge Short of Kings county would be available this week. Judge Austin, who was to have tried the case, had informally discussed it with Judge Conley of Modesto, and so had become disqualified from trying it.

Y. M. ORGANIZES FOR BIBLE STUDY

Organization for the purpose of promoting Bible study in connection with Y. M. C. A. work took place at the Biby Study conference held at Walker's ranch, near Sanger, from Saturday afternoon to Sunday afternoon. Delegates were present from Fresno, Tulare, Kings and Stanislaus counties, and Fresno city. An attendance of 55 members took part in the discussion.

R. B. Perkins, executive secretary of the San Francisco association, was the principal speaker, and the others taking part were Ralph G. Cole, state boys' secretary, F. E. Walker, George A. Forbes, and other representatives from the Valley counties.

As a means of promoting Bible study in a practical way the conference, it was stated, decided to plan a series of goals at which the members would aim. Each district was given a certain number of members as its goal, and this object was to be reached through the organization of clubs.

The membership to be attained by this means was stated to be 1,505. The number of clubs and goals was decided as follows: Fresno city, 21 clubs with 250 members; Fresno county, 22 clubs with 500 members; Tulare county, 25 clubs with 300 members; Kings county, 20 clubs with 275 members; and Stanislaus county, 15 clubs with 180 members.

The boys' work of the Y. M. C. A. also received the attention of the delegates, and it was decided to make special efforts towards this branch of the association's work.

The Fresno evening high school is offering two courses this fall which are of particular interest to persons engaged in commercial lines. A class in business law for business men is now being organized which will cover among other things, the following subjects: Laws of contracts in general with application to practical problems, particular contracts as applied to sales of goods, laws governing insurance, bailments, common carriers, the insurance of goods, and the new negotiable instrument law, laws of principal and agent, master and servant, employers' liability, laws of partnership and joint stock companies. This course will be taken from the codes of California and should be very valuable to those who have or are likely to have business dealings of any kind. The class will be under the direction of F. M. Fultone, a licensed attorney.

The class in advertising and salesmanship will treat of the various methods whereby goods may be brought before the public and sold. The psychological principles of salesmanship will be discussed and practical applications made. In studies of advertising the student will prepare copy to illustrate the principle and mechanical elements involved.

These classes meet each Monday and Wednesday evening at the Fresno high school. The tuition is free.

CUTICURA HEALS PAINFUL PIMPLES

On Neck, Forehead and Scalp. Most Disfiguring.

"I had pimples on the back of my neck, forehead, and scalp. They were red and large with scales on the tops, and they were very painful. They itched which caused me to scratch them, and they were most disfiguring. My hair became dry and itchy."

"Then I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using a few days the pimples began to disappear, and I used two cakes of Soap with one box of Ointment when I was healed."

(Signed) Mrs. J. S. Marshall, Enumac, Wash., Dec. 3, 1917.

If you have a poor complexion improve it by using Cuticura Soap daily and Cuticura Ointment occasionally.

OIL SURVEY SHOWS DEMAND FAR EXCEEDS PRESENT SUPPLY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Statistics of the United States Geological Survey and the import figures of the department of commerce show that there is a grave nation-wide shortage of oil production as compared with demand. By means of the utmost economy in use of fuel oil, California has at last brought the consumption and production to an approximate level, but demands for various war necessities are coming from the east, and with these the state will find it harder all the time to keep the two even, while thousands of acres of the best oil lands remain tied up by the direct action of the United States government itself.

In the east such is the demand for oil for all purposes that during the first six months of 1918 no less than 16,000,000 barrels of Mexican crude were imported. But, despite this, on July 31, 1918, the stocks on hand east of and including the Rocky Mountains had been reduced during the course of a year by 21,355,000 barrels, or at the rate of 58,349 barrels daily. Moreover, the demand for oil is growing. During July stocks, outside of California, were drained at the rate of 101,948 barrels daily, and imports from Mexico averaged 107,482 barrels, thus showing that the production of domestic crude in the United States, outside of California, was short of the demand during July by 209,401 barrels daily. California can make up a small part of the shortage by drawing still further upon her own depleted stocks, but not enough to relieve seriously the conditions. If allowed to develop to the utmost the lands now tied up in litigation, and given transportation facilities, California might help out greatly. As it is, this state has barely enough production day by day for the home market's absolute necessities.

For Military Use.
 Recent prohibition of Sunday exporting in the east released for export to military forces in France no less than 500,000 barrels of gasoline. Oil Director Requa has just authorized this statement. These shipments will figure in the September export figures, but not yet available. August data, however, show gasoline exports to have been greater than month than during the same month last year by 27,400,000 gallons, and greater than July's exports this year by approximately 9,000,000 gallons.

The great offensive in France and Belgium has called for the use of gasoline on a far greater scale than before. Great as has been its use in the past military operations, as compared with now it is trifling. Never before have so many thousands of tanks been used, never before have the motor transportation facilities been what they are now; or the air service as strong and active as now. Hence the call for more gasoline. Before last Christmas the London Petroleum Board gave warning that this year more gasoline than ever before would be required, thus establishing the fact that the great offensive, with tanks and motor transportation, was planned long ago and prepared accordingly.

The Macedonian offensive is also undoubtedly a great quantity of gasoline. Dispatches tell of the use of tanks and of the plan they created among the Bulgarians, who were unprepared for their appearance, believing that they could not be shipped to Saloniki. The character of the Balkans may render the use of motor cars difficult, but the lack of railroad facilities renders them absolutely essential. At present, no doubt, American gasoline is being shipped to Saloniki, but whenever the Allied forces reach the Pacific they will not only be ready at once to interfere seriously with the transportation of the enemy's gasoline and other oil supplies from Rumania, but also soon to take possession of the Rumanian wells, which will remove the necessity for shipping American gasoline to the Balkans, an important development in view of the demand for ships elsewhere, and of the increasing demand upon American and Mexican stocks and wells.

May Burn Mexican Oil.
 In view of the ever-growing demand for the American oil for the manufacture of high-grade refinery products needed for the war, there has been a movement on the part of the navy specifically so as to permit the use of Mexican oil, which is now barred because of its high content of sulphur. There may be a number of other changes in the specifications for various oil products used by the Allied armies and navies. An inter-Allied committee of experts has been appointed to handle all such questions, and it is said to be considering earnestly some important moves calculated to ease the pressure on the sources of crude supply and upon the refineries.

BEGIN DRILLING MANY NEW WELLS

FULLERTON, Oct. 7.—The Columbia Oil company has No. 3 on the Puente Hill completed and ready to bring in at a depth of 4,250 feet. It looked like a good well from the 1,000-foot mark. No. 7 has landed a string of 3 1/4-inch casing at 2,600 feet, and drilling is proceeding uninterruptedly. In the Olinda section the Columbia is drilling two wells, No. 28 at 2,100 feet and No. 21 at 2,600 feet.

The Amalgamated Oil company has its Anaheim Union No. 42 drilling at 3,150 feet in formation of brown shale and is showing lots of oil and gas. No. 42 looks like the best big well the Amalgamated will get on this lease, as the drilling of wells and the gradual releasing of the gas pressure have greatly reduced the chances of bringing in any more gushers on the lease. The Amalgamated has leased property and will sink a well west of the Standard's Kramer well, which was recently brought in, and will begin drilling as soon as the derrick is up and the rigging-up work is completed. This well will be known as Johnston No. 1.

The Brea Canyon Oil company's No. 28, which was finished two weeks ago, at a depth of 4,150 feet, is flowing at the rate of 700 barrels a day, and the pressure continues to stand at 700 pounds, making the well look like a long-lived one. The redrilling of No.

USED IMPOUNDED FUNDS FOR CREDIT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—Copies of published reports stating that Howard M. Payne, government receiver for oil lands in Kern county, secured a widespread personal credit from banks in which he deposited the impounded moneys of these lands, were submitted to Chief Justice William H. Gilbert of the United States circuit court of appeals here today by United States District Judge Maurice T. Dooling. Judge Dooling suggested that, if conditions warranted, Payne's dealings with these banks be investigated in some district judge who took no part in vetting him with the receiver's appointment. The oil lands are now under litigation in the federal courts. A receiver, Payne deposited approximately $20,000 in impounded funds, which enabled him to purchase a controlling interest in 25,000 acres of rice lands in Glenn and Colusa counties, the report said. There was no suggestion of the violation of any law, the question being one of ethics purely, Judge Dooling said.

STRIKE OIL VEIN IN DIGGING WELL IN NEBRASKA TOWN

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 7.—An oil vein that flows a gallon of oil every three minutes was struck by workmen engaged in digging a cesspool at River-ton, Neb., 125 miles southwest of Lincoln, in Franklin county, according to a dispatch received here from River-ton today. Experts called the town pronounced the oil to be of good quality, the dispatch said.

It is going along nicely at 2 1/2 feet. This well a year ago was making 450 barrels a day, when a formation movement cut off three strings of pipe and ruined the well. Redrilling commenced at 1,200 feet.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—Food prices in Petrograd and Moscow are the highest ever recorded there, according to letters received here by the father of two French women now in Russia. Boots cost $160 a pair and a man's suit $240. The clothing and shoe crisis was said to be "terrible." These French women said they were paying 50 cents for one egg, $1.50 for a box of milk, $4 for a pound of meat, $10 a pound for butter, $150 a pound for potatoes and $2 a pound for fish. The Russian pound, it must be remembered, is about one-fifth less than the American pound avoirdupois.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Ensign William J. Shartley was killed and Lieutenant Commander Albert Trevor and Electrician Still were injured in an internal explosion aboard the submarine O-5 at New York, Saturday.

Dr. John Oliver, who has been superintendent of the Fresno district of the M. E. church, and who retires at the end of the six-year term, according to the discipline of the church, returned last evening from the annual conference, which closed yesterday at Bakersfield, after a week's session. He is a man of large experience in ministerial work, having many important charges. Some of his recent pastorates were at Pomona and Riverside. He has two sons in the Student Army Training class at the University of Southern California and another son aged about 4 years. Rev. White and wife will make Fresno their home.

Several changes in the pastorates were necessitated by calls to the army for chaplains. Rev. W. L. Dexter, pastor of Grace M. E. church, Fresno, goes to Hanford, taking the charge left vacant by W. W. Hull called into the army as chaplain. Rev. George A. Warner, who came to the conference five years ago, first in the Santa Barbara district, and later at Lindsay, received a unanimous call to Bakersfield First church, to take the place of Rev. A. L. Baker, who becomes an army chaplain. H. C. Slater, of McFarland, called also as army chaplain, is succeeded by Rev. W. Winebrenner, formerly pastor at Del Rey, J. P. Lavoni, formerly of Parlier, and who had charge of the Sierra Chautauqua last summer, succeeds Winebrenner at Del Rey. W. T. Powell, of Merced, is another who has been called as chaplain. The conference voted to permit the M. E. church of that city to consolidate with the M. E. church South. J. W. Brunner of Lakeside near Hanford is also made an army chaplain.

Other changes of interest here are the following: Harry Ryder, formerly of Parlier, goes to Trinity church, Long Beach; Samuel Hughes, formerly pastor of Grace church, Fresno, is a Y. M. C. A. secretary and is now on his way to France; Rev. Alfred Hughes, his brother, is returned to Santa Barbara, and the conference voted to meet in his new church which will be completed in time for the conference next year; Rev. Frank B. Cowgill, who was pastor here previous to Rev. Will A. Betts, is returned to Covina; Rev. Will A. Betts is returned to First church in Fresno; H. G. Kennedy is again pastor of the Normal M. E. church, and Rev. Harley Baily, Calum and Roosevelt avenue; C. B. Montague, changes from Reedley to Lindsay; Rev. Don Allen, formerly pastor in Fresno churches, is returned to Coalinga; W. L. Miller, from Los Angeles, comes to the Easton church; Rev. Thomas Burden, formerly of Fresno, returns to First church at Tulare; C. E. Bower, formerly of Easton, goes to Patterson; A. Burge, comes from San Diego to Caruthers, and Bart Hamlin, formerly of Caruthers, goes to a charge near San Diego; F. E. Watson comes to Visalia from Inglewood, and C. D. Hicks of Los Angeles succeeds C. R. Montague at Reedley. Rev. Vernon M. McCombs, who has charge of the Portuguese and Spanish work in this conference, is given charge of the work on the entire coast. CONDEMNED MURDERER
TO PAY DEATH PENALTY

Thomas Bellon, Who Killed Mother-in-Law
at Merced to Hang

Committed Crime While His Victim Slept; Tried to Kill His Wife

MERCED, Oct. 7.—Thomas Bellon, of Dinuba, murderer of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Molano, whom he killed by slashing her throat with a razor, after first attempting to hang her, was sentenced today to hang for the crime, the penalty being pronounced by Judge E. N. Rector. Tomorrow morning the prisoner will be taken to the state prison at San Quentin where he will be kept until the time for execution for 10 o'clock this morning.

Evidence was introduced this morning for the satisfaction of the court in clearing a point raised by Bellon's statement last Thursday that he did not intend to kill his mother-in-law, and that the razor gash was inflicted when he struck at her because she was approaching him with a gun. The witness was Jennie Molano, daughter of the murdered woman; Thomas Falco, son-in-law of Mrs. Molano; and Mrs. Molano, husband of the slain woman.

Jennie Molano testified that when she and others called at the jail on the night of Bellon's capture, where they asked to be allowed to identify the prisoner, he asked in Italian, "Are they all dead?" and when answered that three were dead, said, "I wish they all were dead," and said further, "Let them hang. I don't care." This testimony was corroborated by Falco. C. Molano then took the stand and testified that his wife did not have a gun in her hand at all, thereby contradicting the statement of Bellon that he struck at the woman because she came toward him with a gun.

This morning's testimony, coupled with the previous evidence that Bellon had killed his mother-in-law, had indicated his wife's alleged actions against him, in having him arrested and in threatening to have him sent to war, was sufficient to the court in establishing the facts of the crime, and necessary to make the crime murder in the first degree.

Attorney Terry W. Ward, counsel for the murderer, moved the withdrawal of the testimony of the witness who had been introduced, and asked for a jury, but the judge denied the motion. At the conclusion of the testimony the attorney gave notice of appeal to the supreme court.

Bellon sat in court in a subdued, calm state throughout the case this morning, and when standing to receive the pronouncement of the death sentence he did not flinch or in any way exhibit any slackening of the remorseless conduct which has marked his attitude since the time of his capture on the Thursday night of September 25. When taken back to his cell in the county jail, there to wait until his journey tomorrow to keep his first with death, Bellon asked the sheriff if he had to go to court again, and when told that he was to receive his sentence, he walked slowly into his cell, where the iron doors were closed and locked.

There were about 100 spectators in the court room at the death sentence was pronounced.

RANCHERS WORK TO SAVE FRUIT

FARLEIGH, Oct. 7.—Ranchers are very busy trying to save crops. Thursday and Friday of last week many ranchers were busy unstacking and turning trays, and everything was done that could be done to help the situation. Boys and girls were encouraged to leave school and turn trays. Saturday was again cloudy and all business houses closed and the employees went out in the vineyards to stack trays. There has been considerable damage done to crops through a very few heavy rains, but the damage to the quality has been great, however. The storm and gloomy outlook has delayed the loan drive, but the ranchers as a rule are game and American and intend to overcome all difficulties.

Thursday night a second Y. M. C. A. group will be organized under the leadership of Professor Brown. This will be a group for high school boys. Mr. Brown, the county secretary, will be present. This will make two groups for Farleigh.

Friday night Mr. Harvey will entertain his Sunday school class at his home.

In the absence of Rev. Ryder, who is attending the M. E. convention in Redwood, Rev. S. J. S. will deliver the congregation Sunday morning.

Emery Hughes left last week for Redlands, where he will enter a military training school.

Charles Traylor is working in the shoe factory at Vallejo.

Dr. J. A. McKenney left last week for Camp Kearney to join the medical corps. He holds a first lieutenant's commission. His family will remain in Farleigh.

Harry Gray has successfully passed the examinations at San Pedro and is now in the officers' training class.

Miss Albert Johnson, daughter of Mrs. A. G. Johnson, has arrived safely at France. She is a Red Cross nurse.

FATALITY RESULTS FROM INFLUENZA IN HOME AT WATERFORD

MODESTO, Oct. 7.—Albert E. Pelker, aged 19 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Pelker, the first victim of Spanish influenza in Stanislaus county, died last night following an illness of one week. The Pelkers came from Cuba, by way of New Orleans, to Modesto and Waterford two weeks ago. Two soldiers on the train on which they rode were suffering from influenza. The family was isolated and quarantined by health officials. Another son, two years older, is ill with influenza. Young Pelker had expected to be drafted into the army.

Cases at Riverbank
RIVERBANK, Oct. 7.—Spanish influenza has made its appearance in Stanislaus county in several instances. In most instances it is a mild form with the exception of two very severe cases, that of Mrs. Glen Merrihew and J. W. Jones, both of the same residence. Mr. Jones returned last week from Kansas and believes he contracted it on the train as there were two coach loads of soldiers that were ill on his train. The cases here are being isolated as far as they develop.

FARMERS TO RAISE
ADDITIONAL SHEEP

MODESTO, Oct. 7.—Farmers of Stanislaus county received four carloads of sheep from Elks creek, Sacramento county, Saturday, purchased by Prof. R. G. Miller of the animal husbandry division of the state university. One carload went to eighteen farmers at Patterson, another to ten in Modesto, and two to Turlock for ten farmers. The sheep are being purchased through the farm bureau in the Liberty flock drive started by the government some months ago. Farmers advised by A. J. Jurgensen have pledged to date from 43 farmers to keep an additional flock of sheep, the total being 2281 sheep. It is estimated that the additional sheep pledged in Stanislaus county will clothe 150 soldiers aside from the nation to be supplied by the army. Three more carloads will be sent later to farmers at Hughson, Patterson and Modesto, and Mr. Jurgensen expects to have a flock for the High School Agricultural club of which he is in charge.

Reedley Resident Is Forced to Uncover
for National Anthem

REEDLEY, Oct. 7.—A little disturbance occurred during the program for the Trophy Train when the band played "The Star Spangled Banner." A bystander refused to remove his hat when requested to do so, and made his refusal in a disagreeable manner, saying that he didn't have to. When his hat was taken from his head he attempted to defend himself with a club which he carried. He was quickly taken into the care of City Marshal Hardison, who left at once for Fresno with him. It is stated that he made the threat that "Reedley" would be blown to hell inside of twenty-four hours. The club he had in his possession bore twelve significant notches and this was presented to the Liberty loan train, which took it with it as another trophy.

Reedley Resident Is Forced to Uncover
for National Anthem

REEDLEY, Oct. 7.—A little disturbance occurred during the program for the Trophy Train when the band played "The Star Spangled Banner." A bystander refused to remove his hat when requested to do so, and made his refusal in a disagreeable manner, saying that he didn't have to. When his hat was taken from his head he attempted to defend himself with a club which he carried. He was quickly taken into the care of City Marshal Hardison, who left at once for Fresno with him. It is stated that he made the threat that "Reedley" would be blown to hell inside of twenty-four hours. The club he had in his possession bore twelve significant notches and this was presented to the Liberty loan train, which took it with it as another trophy.

MANY VOTERS REGISTER

MODESTO, Oct. 7.—County Clerk Hugh Benson estimates that 1000 voters registered in this county since the primary held August 27 in order to vote at the November elections. For the primaries more than 18,000 voters registered but since that time many registrants have changed their addresses and have failed to secure transfers which will preclude their voting this fall.

RAISIN CROP LARGE SPITE OF HEAVY RAIN LOSSES

Association Statement to owers Asks That They ave All They Can

ry Effort Being Made
ure Damaged Crops:
Dry Days Needed

California Associated Raisin any yesterday mailed a statement to the growers, expressing the hope that the improving weather may enable the growers to save nearly as many raisins as they have in normal years. The growers are asked to do all they can.

F. A. Seymour writes:
It is impossible to estimate the extent of the damage, but it was hoped at with clearing skies and drying days it would not be so great as at first feared. Without any intention of tempting to minimize the gravity of the situation, we ask the growers to do all they can. The growers are asked to do all they can.

Apparently some crops have been destroyed, so far as making raisins are concerned, but in many cases it will be found that crops whose present appearance seems quite hopeless now will make raisins for some purpose, and that the loss will be lighter than now seems inevitable.

Growers are asked to work unceasingly and to leave nothing undone that will assist in saving the crop.

Boys' Great Help
Nearly 100 boys were sent out from high school yesterday through the Valley Fruit Growers' Association to help turn trays in the California Raisin Company in continuing to help with men.

Richard Schmidt of the high school faculty has placed lye and sulphur processed raisins on display at the association's offices. In general, the main treatment is the drying, as good weather will destroy the moulds. A number of artificial driers are being built.

BARBOUR BEGINS TOUR OF DISTRICT

H. E. Barbour, Republican nominee for congress in the seventh district, began a tour of the seven counties of the district yesterday. He expects to be away about a week. Barbour does not expect to do a great deal of speaking on the trip, but is rather making it a get acquainted visit in all the towns he expects to visit.

He visited in Visalia and other Tulare county towns yesterday and was told by friends that the outlook there was very promising. He expects to be in Bakersfield today and will also visit other towns in Kern county before turning north.

BACK FROM CONFERENCE
Miss Maude Schaeffer, dean of women at the Fresno state normal school, returned yesterday from a conference of state educators held in San Francisco, to take steps to promote interest in education of a useful nature among the university women of the state.

President Ray Lyman Wilber of Stanford university gave the principal address, and called on the women at the head of educational institutions to direct the education of students along lines of definite service to the nation.

Miss Schaeffer said that the points instilled upon by Dr. Wilber were that college education would have to be re-valued, and that the more culture of the individual should not be made the only object of higher education, but that education should be regarded as having social functions.

Pig Club Boy Clears Up $200; to Join Aviators

Ralph Graves, pig club member, has made good in the pig business. Ralph exhibited at the Fresno fair a sow with seven pigs fattened in March.
The breed is Duroc-Jersey and, needless to say, is registered stock. A fine showing the pigs made, at least 30 thought Fred Harrison, who bought the seven pigs while they were on exhibition at the fair. Ralph received $200 from the seven and still has a splendid sow on hand. Two hundred dollars for the lot was a very moderate price but Ralph has recently turned eighteen, and like thousands of other boys in about military service, as the young owner said:

"I'll clear a hundred dollars on the litter. I can leave the sow for the folks at home to raise another lot. As for myself, well, I'm going into aviation and I'm afraid Uncle Sam will raise objections if I try to continue the pork business in a corner of his aviation field."

adopted at a regular meeting yesterday, in memory of the late Hans Graff:

organizers of this association, and

Y. M. DELEGATES TO GO TO CONFERENCE

A delegation of ten boys is to be sent to the Y. M. C. A. conference at Stanford University from October 18 to October 20, according to an announcement at the Fresno Y. M. C. A. yesterday. An elaborate program of work and entertainment has been prepared, and prominent speakers in association circles are announced to be present.

George A. Forbes, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of California, said that the conference was in line with the program of the state association which intends to make boys' work one of the principal features of Y. M. C. A. work.
The draft, he said, had drawn heavily on the membership of the association everywhere, and it was felt that the present was a suitable time to promote work among the boy members.

The delegates already appointed are Herbert Huebner, president of the Y. M. C. A. conference club; Ed Crow-ford; Ed Arnold; Claude Minard and Albert Beckwith. The association will appoint five more delegates.

HUNDREDS DRILL AT AUDITORIUM FOR WAR PRACTICE

Squads of Recruits Fall in Line With Parade of Drafted Men

Council of Defense Head
Is Private; Lindsay
Gives Address

Nearly 100 draft men joined the Monday night military training class at the Auditorium rally last night.
There was a total of about 300 men in line, including about fifteen men who will have today for training camp. A contingent of ten Coalitions going to war, took their first lesson in drill last night. Nearly two hours of exercises in marching, facing and school of the squad were given, and the men were ready for more.

As the parade containing 200 men and a dozen officers left Armory Hall to march through the business streets, crowds lined the walks, attracted by the marching men with the Eagles drum corps at their head. At almost every corner, recruits fell in singly and by squads, and there were 200 men in line when the parade entered the Auditorium. Others joined the ranks there, and men and women watched from the balconies.

A stirring address by Carl E. Lindsey preceded intensive drill.

He was introduced by P. A. Roman, district chairman of the Council of Defense, who fell out of the ranks to take the platform.

The Highest Honors
"It is greater to be an American citizen than to be a king, and to be an American soldier of liberty is the world's highest honor," said Lindsay.

"Soldiers of the Republic, for such you are or will become, the Kaiser can read his doom written in crimson on the battle clouds of Belgium and France. It is an honor to be called by our country to fight, and the man who will not gladly respond is unworthy."

"We have got 2,000,000 men across, and have proved that the Kaiser is a liar. We will give him no peace until he begs for mercy."

To Do Grass Country
Major Ed Jones announced that plans were perfected for a cross-country march at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. Nearly every man present volunteered to be at the Armory on time for the march.

Lieutenant Dextel took charge of the men and put them through the drills.
He was assisted by Major Jones, and Sergeants E. J. Crawford, C. J. Mc-Carthy, William E. McKinnon, Fentry, Hopkins, McClung, A. D. Strong, L. A.
Down and others.

Drills will be conducted at the Armory tonight and tomorrow night by Lieutenant Dextel, and Thursday night by Major Jones. Friday night, those wishing to drill will drill with the Home Guards under Major Jones.

Active drill will begin at Clovis tonight. The men of that region will meet at the First National bank and will drill at the lumber company warehouse, Gordon B. Loring, Fred Hansen and Walter Reister are in charge of arrangements. Fresno officers may attend the drill.

M. C. A. took place at an all-day conference of the county secretaries of the northern section of the state held in the Fresno Y. M. C. A. building yesterday. The formation of local clubs and clubs for Bible study formed part of the business before the conference.

night at the Parlor Lecture Club, and hoped to give the first concert in December.

The chorus went on record as being willing to do what it could for patriotic work, and will give free concerts and appear publicly in the county as well as the city about ten times. The chorus is lending its support to the lib-

It was decided to meet regularly at

Used Clothes for Belgians Shipped in Furniture Car

Fresno county went over the top yesterday for the third "used clothing" drive for the Belgians and the several ladies of the local Belgian relief committee may now have a rich stock of relief from their two weeks' labor in receiving and preparing for shipment.

A large furniture car load was started on its journey yesterday by the local Red Cross chapter, the usual box car not being large enough to carry Fresno county's contribution.

Many towns in the county and patriotic citizens living throughout the county were liberal in their donations.

It is better to have looked after the boxing and shipping in each of the three drives for the local chapter, said that in each of the two former shipments Fresno had sent about one thousandths part of the requirements from the United States, while this time many times the quantity was sent, yesterday's shipment being about one four-hundredths of the total requirements. The quality sent is excellent, many ladies having sent newly made articles of great value and usage.

R. C. SALVAGE SHOP OFFERS BARGAINS

"Over the top" for the ladies of St.
James' Guild of the Episcopal Pro-cathedral, who had charge of the Red Cross salvage shop yesterday, the day's sales passing the coveted daily $100 goal by a small margin, the total being $104.00.

Today the ladies of the First Congregational church will have charge and to encourage the sales for the day, they are announcing as special offerings, appropriate to the season, a gas stove, a coal stove and fruit, from tomatoes, a 5-pound goose, leather pillow, a baby buggy and some clothing of good value.

Chapter of the Red Cross will hold ing to an announcement made yesterday by Dr. John D. Morgan. Chester H. Rowell will lead the discussion with the arguments in favor of the amendment, and Dr. G. A. Hare will present the arguments against.

legal bodies of the county.
